3. Constitutional and Legal Provisions

As per Article 246(1) of the Constitution of India, Parliament has exclusive power to make laws with respect to any of the matters enumerated in List I (the “Union List”) of the Seventh Schedule. “Posts and Telegraphs; telephones, wireless, broadcasting and other like forms of communication” is listed at Entry 31 of the Union List. Posts is therefore a Union subject, and Parliament has exclusive power to legislate on it.

A new postal legislation, “The Post Office Act, 2023” (Act No. 43 of 2023), was passed by Parliament. It received the assent of the President of India on 24th December 2023 and was notified in the Gazette of India on the same date. The Act came into force with effect from 18th June 2024, vide Gazette Notification No. S.O. 2352(E) dated 17th June 2024, thereby repealing the Indian Post Office Act, 1898.

Note: Verified against PIB / Gazette: assent 24.12.2023; S.O. 2352(E) dated 17.06.2024; in force 18.06.2024; repeals the Indian Post Office Act, 1898 — all confirmed correct and current.

4. Mail Network and Infrastructure

As on December 2024, e-clearance of letter boxes had been implemented for 53,792 letter boxes in the country. Automated Mail Processing Centres (AMPCs) have been established at Delhi and Kolkata; each is equipped with a Letter Sorting Machine (LSM) and a Mixed Mail Sorter (MMS), with sorting capacities of 35,000 and 18,000 items per hour respectively.
