GOVERNMENT DECISIONS / IMPORTANT GIDs

- ▶ Although the salary ceiling of ₹500 p.m. appears archaic today, the proviso has never been repealed; it is therefore quoted verbatim in the rule book and is a frequent test-question for postal examinations.

- ▶ Gramin Dak Sevaks (GDS) are NOT Government servants and are governed by the Gramin Dak Sevaks (Conduct & Engagement) Rules, 2020 — they are therefore outside the CCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964.

Rule 2 — Definitions

In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires —

(a) “The Government”

means the Central Government.

(b) “Government servant”

means any person appointed by Government to any civil service or post in connection with the affairs of the Union and includes a civilian in a Defence Service.

(c) “Members of family”

in relation to a Government servant, includes —

- The wife or husband of the Government servant, whether residing with the Government servant or not — but does not include a wife or husband, as the case may be, separated from the Government servant by a decree or order of a competent court;
- The son or daughter or step-son or step-daughter of the Government servant and wholly dependent on him — but does not include a child or step-child who is no longer in any way dependent on the Government servant or of whose custody the Government servant has been deprived by or under any law;
- Any other person related, whether by blood or marriage, to the Government servant or to the Government servant's wife or husband, and wholly dependent on the Government servant.

This expanded meaning is restricted to Rule 4 alone.
- ▶ Rules where the definition of "members of family" applies equally to the Government servant and the family: Rule 13 (Gifts) and Rule 16 (Investment, lending & borrowing). In other rules, family members are subjected to a more liberal regime.

Explanations to Rule 3

Explanation I — A Government servant who habitually fails to perform the task assigned to him within the time set for the purpose and with the quality of performance expected of him shall be deemed to be lacking in devotion to duty within the meaning of clause (ii) of sub-rule (1).

Explanation II — Nothing in clause (ii) of sub-rule (2) shall be construed as empowering a Government servant to evade his responsibilities by seeking instructions from, or approval of, a superior officer or authority when such instructions are not necessary under the scheme of distribution of powers and responsibilities.

Rule 5 — Taking Part in Politics and Elections

- (1) No Government servant shall be a member of, or be otherwise associated with, any political party or any organisation which takes part in politics; nor shall he take part in, subscribe in aid of, or assist in any other manner, any political movement or activity.
- (2) It shall be the duty of every Government servant to endeavour to prevent any member of his family from taking part in, subscribing in aid of, or assisting in any other manner, any movement or activity which is, or tends directly or indirectly to be, subversive of the Government as by law established; and where a Government servant is unable to prevent such a member, he shall make a report to that effect to the Government.

- ▶ The MHA / DoP&T O.M.s dated 30.11.1966, 25.07.1970 and 28.10.1980 had directed that participation by Government servants in the activities of the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS) and the Jamaat-e-Islami would attract disciplinary action under Rule 5 of the CCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964.
- ▶ DoP&T O.M. No. 34013/1(S)/2016-Estt.(B) dated 9 July 2024 has reviewed those instructions and removed the mention of RSS from the OMs dated 30.11.1966, 25.07.1970 and 28.10.1980. Consequently, RSS is no longer placed on par with banned/political organisations for the purposes of Rule 5; participation by Government servants in its activities does not, by itself, attract disciplinary action.
- ▶ The same OMs, however, continue to cover Jamaat-e-Islami. The bar on Government servants associating with Jamaat-e-Islami subsists.
- ▶ Independently of the above, any organisation falling within Rule 6 — i.e., whose objects or activities are prejudicial to the sovereignty and integrity of India, public order or morality —

Examination Pointers — Most-Asked Trip-Up Points

Watch these traps in objective questions

- ▶ "Commencement": the rules came into force at once from 12 December 1964 — not 12.12.1965 (which is the CCS (CCA) Rules).
- ▶ Rule 1 partial-exemption pay ceiling = ₹500 p.m. (unchanged figure).
- ▶ Number of duties under Rule 3(1) after the Third Amendment Rules, 2014 = 21 clauses — not 3 (which is the pre-2014 position).
- ▶ Gift limits under Rule 13(2): ₹25,000 / ₹15,000 / ₹7,500 for Groups A / B / C respectively — these are not combined for Groups A+B.
- ▶ Companies Act under Rule 15(1)(e) = Companies Act, 1956 — the principal rule has not been updated to the Companies Act, 2013.
- ▶ Annual IPR submission date = 31st January — applicable to Group 'A' and Group 'B' (not Group 'C').
- ▶ Deemed-permission window for property outside India / dealings with foreigners (Rule 18-A) = 60 days — all other property-related windows are 30 days.
- ▶ Deemed-permission window under Rule 19 (vindication of acts) = three months.
- ▶ Indoor games prohibited in office buildings after 7:00 P.M. — except on special occasions such as tournaments.
- ▶ Lunch hour decorum: half-an-hour only.
- ▶ Sub-letting of Government accommodation = grave misconduct inviting disciplinary action under Rule 14 of CCS (CCA) Rules, 1965.
- ▶ Child labour penalty cited in post-2016 study material: 6 months–2 years imprisonment and/or ₹20,000–₹50,000 fine — pre-2016 ceilings are outdated.
