Clarifications regarding Central Civil Services (Recognition of Service Associations) Rules, 1993

The undersigned is directed to invite attention of all Ministers / Departments to the Central Civil Services (Recognition of Service Association) Rules, 1993 (hereinafter referred to as the Rules), which were notified in November, 1993 and to this Department's OM of even number, dated the 31st January, 1994 and to say that a large number of reference are being received in this Department seeking clarification concerning the above-mentioned Recognition Rules.

With a view to avoid further reference and to expedite matters, the common points of doubt have been compiled and are clarified below for information of all Ministers / Departments.

Point 1: Applicability to Casual Labours and Others

Query: Whether the rules are applicable to casual Labours, Extra-Departmental Agents, Contingent Paid staff, Industrial employees.

Clarification: No. They are applicable only to those Central Government employees to whom the CCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964 apply.

Point 3: Minimum Membership Conditions

Query: Whether the first two associations are to be recognized even if neither of them fulfils the conditions of having the minimum membership of 35%.

Clarification: No. Fulfilment of the condition prescribed in Rule 5 (d) (i) is essential before recognition can be considered. In other words, one association, that is the first association, must have 35% membership before the second association with minimum of 15% membership, can be recognized.

Point 4: Central vs. Zonal Recognition

Query: Whether Associations are to be recognized centrally or Zone/circle/Region wise.

Clarification: The Associates are to be recognized centrally on an all Ministry/Department basis. Such Associations may have their branches in the subordinate formulations.

Point 5: Scope of Minimum Membership

Query: Whether the minimum membership prescribed in Rules 5 (d) (i) is for the entire Department or Zone/circle/Region wise, etc.

Clarification: The condition of minimum membership as laid down in Rule 5 (d) (i) is for the entire Department. In other words, an Association must have the minimum percentage of members amongst all employees in that distinct category in that Department.

Point 6: Branch Membership Requirements

Query: Whether an Association having fulfilled the conditions of Rule 5(d) (i) in the entire Department also have the minimum membership as prescribed in Rule 5 (d) (i) in each of its branches.

Clarification: No.

Point 7: Calculation of Minimum Membership

Query: Whether vacant posts will be taken into account for the purpose of calculating minimum membership.

Clarification: Percentage of membership is to be determined on the number of employees in each distinct category and not on the number of posts.

Point 8: Associations Based on Caste or Tribe

Query: Whether an Association of SC/ST employees can be recognized.

Clarification: An Association whose membership is restricted to a particular caste, tribe or religious denomination cannot be recognized under the Rules.

Point 9: Periodicity of Elections

Query: Whether the election of office bearers is to be held annually in view of Rule 6 (e).

Clarification: The periodicity of elections would be as per the Constitution of each Association. However, the Associations are required to submit the documents detailed in Rule 6 (e) annually.

Point 10: Registration Requirements

Query: Whether the Associations have to be registered under the Trade Union Act/Societies Act before they can be considered for recognition under the CCS (Recognition of service Associations) Rules, 1993.

Clarification: No.

Point 11: Fresh Recognition for Existing Associations

Query: Whether existing recognized Associations are required to seek fresh recognition under the CCS (Recognition of service Associations) Rules, 1993.

Clarification: Yes. All existing recognized Associates, desirous of continuing as such, must be recognized under the CCS (Recognition of Service Associations) Rules, 1993, on or before 4th November, 1994. A copy of this circular may be made available to all the existing associations in your office for information.

Features of Constitution/Bye-laws of the Association Under CCS (RSA) Rules

- Accounting year: 1st April to 31st March.
- (iii) Term of office bearers: An office bearer should have a fixed term not exceeding two years. If elections are not held within three months of expiry of the term, the office bearer would cease to be duly elected representative of the Association.
- (v) Amendment to the Constitution: The Constitution should provide that any amendment would be done by the association after seeking prior approval of the Government [Rule 6 (g)].
- (vii) Number of delegates: The number of delegates from branches/units for attending the Annual General Meeting should be specifically laid down in the Constitution. Such number will, however, depend upon the membership and coverage of the association.

Point 5: Conditional relaxation to the retired/ ex-employees for their continuance as office bearers of the existing Associations

It has now been decided in relaxation of Rule 5(e) of CCS (RSA) Rules, 1993, that as a transitional measure, for a period of two years from the date of grant of recognition under the Rules ibid, the existing Associations may be allowed to continue with the retired/ex-employees as their office bearers to the extent of 25% of the total strength of the office bearers subject to the condition that one of the Chief Office Bearers should be a serving employee.

Point 6: Subscription from the members of the central Secretariat Service Associations can be recovered on a yearly basis instead of monthly

It has been decided that the membership subscription from the salary of the employees as per their declarations may be deducted annually at the rate of not less than one rupee per month. The deduction shall be made in the month of July every year as per the procedure laid down in this Department's O.M.No. 2/10/80-JCA, dated 31-1-1994.

Point 16: Defining categories of employees for the purpose of CCS (Recognition of Service Association) Rules

The undersigned is directed to refer to Postal Directorate's letter of even number, dated 25-2-1994, on the above subject and to say that the issue to define distinct categories of employees for the purpose of forming Service Association has been under consideration for some time and it has now been decided to define the categories of employees as under-

- Group 'C' staff: It has been decided that all the Group 'C' staff of Postal and Circle Administrative Offices may be brought under this category. After the introduction of TBOP/BCR in the Circle Offices, the services of Postal Staff and Administrative Staff have been made interchangeable and, therefore, it is suggested to make one Category of Postal and Administration Wings of the Department.
- Group 'C' (RMS): The Group 'C' staff working in RMS will be under this category.
- Group 'D' Postal and Administrative Staff: This group will include all Group 'D' employees including Postmen and Group 'D' employees of Administrative wing of the Department.
- Group 'D' (RMS): This group will include all the Group 'D' employees of the RMS Wing of the Department.
- IPO/IRM Association: This group will include IPOs/ASPOs and IRMs/ASRMs.
- Postal Civil Wing, Non-Gazetted staff: This group shall cover both Groups 'C' and 'D' employees of the civil Wing (Electrical, Civil, Architects) including the Juniors Engineers.
- Postal Accounts: This group shall cover all the employees posted in the Postal Accounts Wing, Department of Posts. Hitherto these employees were allowed to become members of Administrative unions. As it has been decided not to allow separate Associations for Administrative Staff, the Postal Accounts Employees' Association may represents this category of staff and they would not be allowed to become members of Group 'C' Association. It may be added that presently there is no separate Association for JAOs and they can become member of Postal Accounts Employees' Association. They will continue to be covered under this group.

- Officer's Associations: There will be following three Officers' Associations-
 - IPS Officers.
 - PSS Group 'B' Officers.
 - AAO/AO Sr.AO.

It is also proposed to frame separate set of rules for the purpose of formation of service Association of ED Agents which would be notified separately. The Service Association seeking recognition under the new recognition may please ensure that the formation of their Association should conform to the categorization of employees as stated above. The Constitution and the Memorandum of the Association may also be so prepared that it conforms to the above categorization.
